A Varied History.

The publisher of the Mining News thus announces his 4th volume:

With this issue the News enters upon its fourth volume. The founder and first editor of this paper is in another world, his successor is in the Nevada Insane Asylum, and the third, and present unfortunate, is still battling with the world of flesh and the devil, dodging bullets, and soliciting ads. with pretty good success. We have nothing to complain of. We have full and implicit faith in the future of this camp. The Mining News has more than doubled its circulation during the past six months, and is going to do even better in the future.

Peculiar Case.

A peculiar case has lately been decided in San Francisco, the particulars of which are as follows: A man entered a Market street car, and, in payment of his fair, tendered a five dollar gold piece which the conductor could not change. The passenger, having nothing smaller, was ejected from the car and brought an action against the company for damages. The defense claimed that it is the duty of passengers to tender the exact amount of fare, but the court overruled the defense and held that it was the duty of the conductor to furnish change under the circumstances.

Complimentary Benefit.

Miss Agnes Wederkinch will take a benefit at the Opera House on Saturday evening. The programme is advertised in another column. The selections are all very choice and the names of those who have volunteered insure a successful entertainment. Tickets 50 cents.

Delinquent Taxes.

There has been considerable idle talk about town during the past week relative to District Attorney Torreyson and his management of delinquent tax suits. The idea seems to prevail that he was not only neglecting the duties of his office, but allowing rich men to escape paying their taxes. Yesterday a representative of the APPEAL called at the District Attorney's office, and telling him of these rumors, asked him how many men in Ormsby county were delinquent on the tax rolls.

He showed his books, and there were the names of but seven men delinquent.

"This represents the entire delinquent tax list of Ormsby," said the District Attorney. "Two of these have agreed to pay to-day, and I do not expect to be compelled to bring suits against more than five."

"How much will these five amount to?"

"Twenty-one dollars and a few cents."

"How much has been collected since you went into office?"

"A trifle over sixteen hundred dollars."

The District Attorney exhibited his accounts showing that he had turned this sum over to the county. As far as the reports were concerned, street talk was a matter of indifference to him. If the taxpayers wanted to see how things stand they were always welcome to look at the books.

About Time to Stop It.

It is reported that on a certain evening, not long since, several young men and young ladies of our town were seen coming out of a house in Chinatown where they had been smoking opium. Aside from the evil effects of opium smoking, both upon the system and the moral nature, it is about time to stop this sort of thing, so that the bad example should not become contagious. It seems to us that it is the duty of the night watchman to put a stop to this business of opium smoking—at least by persons laying claims to respectability—and to enforce the law in that respect.—[Austin Democrat.]

The above shows a nice state affairs in Austin and is probably true. The Chinese are rapidly introducing all their Cheap-John ways and vices in Nevada and California.

Didn't Work.

When an attempt was made by the Governor to shift the responsibility of disbanding two military companies of the Comstock upon the shoulders of Cap Mathewson a very poor selection was made. Mathewson read the law up carefully, smelt the mice and declined to be used in that way. In consequence the Governor and Adjutant General were obliged to attend to the business themselves and after considerable deliberation the Nationals and Emmetts were retained. Mr. Adams by careful figuring estimating that there were only 22 votes more in this action than could possibly be gained by disbanding the other two.

Wall Paper.

The rage for complicated patterns in wall paper grows apace. Cagwin & Noteware, Oleovich Bros., and Muller, Schmidt & Co. have received some designs which for cheapness and beauty are simply astonishing. They have paper for the perpendicular wall and also for the lofty ceiling. They should be kept separate, however. One Carsonite who can't tell a Greek dodo from an Egyptian pyramid, put his wall paper on the ceiling and his ceiling paper on the wall. Coming home drunk, he tried to lean against the ceiling, supposing it to be the side wall and wondered why he couldn't. These beautiful designs are cheaper than ever.

Townsend's Latest.

Jim Townsend in giving some of his interesting nautical recollections, tells how when sailing in the South sea his alarm clock fell overboard and was swallowed by a shark. In a few hours the alarm went off which so frightened the shark that it leaped forty feet out of water and fell on the deck. The only improbable feature of this story is how Townsend ever found time to wind up the alarm when he was in the forecastle telling yarns to the marines.

Mackay is coming home, and this following the report of strikes on the Comstock, with Sharon on the ledge again makes everybody feel that good times were coming at last.

LA Promising Field.

Now that the Methodist revival is drawing to a close in Carson, it would seem to be a good idea for the regenerators of the godless to move to Reno and stay there a week or so flushing the sawers of iniquity and cleansing the moral gutters of the riverside town. The revival has without question done much good work in Carson and gathered many sinners into the fold of the faith. It was not a very arduous labor to cleanse a city like Carson, which lacks so little of the essential elements of righteousness. With Reno the case is different. Were Hercules on earth to-day and had his choice of cleaning the Augean stables or grappling with the sinfulness of Reno he would take the stable contract for about 90 per cent. less than the Reno proposition. In no place but Reno could such a moss covered and scienceless liar as James Townsend flourish like a green bay tree. In no city in the universe could such fish stories be incubated as along the banks of the turbulent and treacherous Truckee. Here indeed is the field for the earnest follower of the Lord to swing his gospel scythe in cutting down the rank weeds of sin, the jimson plants of mischief and the cheap and gaudy sunflowers of false pride and worldliness of heart.

Explained.

Concerning the disappearance of Harry Beadle of Eureka from his wife and friends in San Francisco, the Exchange says: "A visitor from Eureka, Nevada, who arrived in town a few days since, accompanied by his wife and $3,000, has suddenly turned up missing. As the money disappeared with him, his absence creates great alarm, and the fear is expressed that he has been foully dealt with. Unfortunately for this theory, however, it is hinted that the Eureka had been heard anxiously inquiring as to the location of the tiger's lair, from which it is natural to infer that he has doubtless found it. Therefore the anxious wife can calm her fears, for hubby will turn up at right as soon as he can invent a plausible excuse for the loss of his money."

Imitation Baking Powders.

TO THE PUBLIC: The public is cautioned against the practice of many grocers who sell what they claim to be Royal Baking Powder, loose or in bulk, without label or trade-mark. All such powders are base imitations. Analysis of hundreds of samples of baking powders sold in bulk to parties asking for Royal have shown them all to be largely adulterated, mostly with alum, dangerous for use in food, and comparatively valueless for leavening purposes.

The public is too well aware of the injurious effects of alum upon the system, to need further caution against the use of any baking powders known to be made from this drug; but the dealer's assurance: "Oh, it's just as good as Royal," or "it's the genuine Royal, only we buy it by the barrel to save expense of can," etc., is apt to mislead unsuspecting consumers into buying an article which they would not knowingly use in their food under any consideration. The only safety from such practices is in buying baking powder only in the original package, of a well known brand, and a thoroughly established reputation.

The Royal Baking Powder is sold only in cans, securely closed with the Company's trade-mark label, and the weight of package stamped on each cover. It is never sold in bulk, by the barrel, or loose by weight or measure, and all such offered the public under any pretense, are imitations.

If consumers will bear these facts in mind, and also see that the package purchased is properly labeled, and the label unbroken, they will be always sure of using a baking powder perfectly pure and whose weight and of the highest test strength is in the market.

Stocks were strong yesterday.
E. B. Rail went below last night.
A quartz mill will be erected at the Henston mine.
The statutes of 1883 are complete.
Judge Wells and his wife left yesterday for Hawthorne.
The Chronicle denies that Bill Sharon is on the Comstock.
Governor Adams is out again and rapidly recovering his good health.
The Ivy Club will give a party on the 11th at the new Carson Guard armory.
All the Carson river mills are running on low grade ore and will run all Summer.
It must be very flattering to Col. Fair to know that his wife values him at ten millions, and won't let him go for a cent less.

Custer Post, C. A. R., of Carson, is agitating a department for Nevada, there being the requisite number of Posts in the State.

Prof. Zech, the San Francisco piano tuner, is in the city, ready to untangle the strings of the Carson pianos and take the snags of discord out of them.

Mr. Schneider, the Boston Baker, whose wagon has all the colors of the sunset and a few of the sunrise, is now delivering bread, crackers and confectionery all done to a turn and warranted of the best material.

Those who have subscribed for the APPEAL during the past few days will please notify this office if the paper is not regularly left by the carrier, as he has some difficulty in learning the whereabouts of some of the new subscribers.

Faro Playing.

The Reno Journal asks who Rev. Gray meant by Senators who play faro, and the Mining News responds:

That is none of your business, General. If any of our State Senators wanted to pay faro, they had a perfect right to do so. The dealers pay their license and they are protected by our state law. There was a Meth dist Minister in the Senate of the late Legislature, and if faro game had been such a nuisance why did he not take steps to abate it.
If all of our Legislators had put in their time playing faro, or anything else during the last session of the Nevada Legislature, the country would be just as safe and there would be more money in the State treasury and the people better pleased.

The In-er-Ocean gives the fairest criticism of Jump, the artist, that has yet been written:
There are many who remember the caricatures of Ed and Jump, exhibited at St. Louis, Chicago and Cincinnati. To those the news that Jump shot himself at Chicago will come with somewhat of a shock. Most of his caricatures were badly done, and a few were coarse; but there was considerable fun in the man.
